THE 1954 VIRGINIAN

LONGWOOD COLLEGE

FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

MARY ANNE KING
Editor-in-Chief

PATRICIA PALMER ALTWEGG
Business Manager

Foreword

TO THE STUDENTS, THE FACULTY AND THOSE FRIENDS WHO HAVE BEEN INTERESTED IN US AND HAVE HELPED WHEN THE GOING GOT ROUGH, WE, THE STAFF OF THE 1954 VIRGINIAN, PRESENT A GLIMPSE INTO OUR CONCEPTION OF A YEAR AT LONGWOOD. WE HAVE TRIED TO CAPTURE THE WORK, THE TRIALS AND THE JOY WHICH COME WITH EACH TASK SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETED. IF AS YOU LOOK AT THE PICTURES AND READ OUR BOOK, YOU GRASP THE FEELING OF OUR LIFE HERE AT SCHOOL, OUR EFFORTS WILL NOT BE UNREWARDED.

Dedicated TO...

DR. GEORGE W. JEFFERS, PROFESSOR OF BIOLOGY AND ADVISOR TO THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION. HIS UNDERSTANDING, THOUGHTFULNESS AND WILLINGNESS TO LISTEN TO OUR TROUBLES WHEN WE NEED HIM MOST HAVE MADE HIM ONE OF THE MOST BELOVED MEMBERS OF OUR COLLEGE FACULTY.

THE SENIOR CLASS

Seated: E. Boswell, N. Copley
Standing: A. Moore, Miss Iler, Johns

LIB BOSWELL .....Vice-President
ANN MOORE .....Secretary
JUNE JOHNS .....Treasurer

WITH the end of a brief summer intermission, the curtain rose on the last act of our own Class of '54 drama, comedy, and tragedy—lighted richly by friendship, growth, new interests, and deepening experiences. This was the climax, but with "Tippy" and "Happy," our stage managers, and our wonderful Miss Olive Iler as director, we surely succeeded.

In September our roles were those of elder sisters, giving the benefits of our past experiences to the freshmen as we led orientation classes; then we delved into the mysteries of student teaching.

A fanfare of circus tunes heralded our next memorable scene. Mary Jean Carlyle brought the whole class on stage in our circus skit "Snails in the Garden" and then reigned as queen of the festivities.

Misty soft lights and silver snowflakes set the atmosphere for our next spectacular appearance. Graceful in long white gown, we seniors with our beaus waltzed under the spell of "Christmas Magic."

Then came a transformation: spring and those coveted contracts! For a change of setting, we seniors took an intermission trip to the lake. Sneak Day—shorts, swimsuits, sandwiches, and sunburn gave us a thrill.

Next appeared rapid changes: sessions of cramming for examinations, melodies of Senior assembly, many parties for the "Red and Whites," and the lantern parade with the clear voices of seniors in one last serenade over the Rotunda railing.

At last we are booked for life's restless changes, ready to give our best to the world. With the inspiration of all our Longwood associations, the memories of the fun we had here, we try to make the "Class of '54" always memorable for achievement.

TUESDAY ASSEMBLY

Activities

Seated: M. Moore, Islin, B. Assaid, Dr. Jeffers, M. D. Wilson, Koch, Wente, L. Beavers
Standing: Kesterson, C. Gray, J. Bailey, Vaden, A. Wendenburg, S. Ward, Rickman, J. Blake, Coiner

Student Government Association

A. Wendenburg, Treas.; M. D. Wilson, Pres.; Koch, V. Pres.; Vaden, Sec.

EVERY woman student of Longwood College is a member of the Student Government Association. The Student Council, elected by the student body, is the governing and directing group which manages the affairs of the students in cooperation with the administrative officials. This group strives to uphold the regulations and ideals of the college and to instill in the entire student body a sense of responsibility for successful living in the school.

The efforts and cooperation of the student body, the faculty, Dr. Lancaster, and Miss Gleaves were greatly appreciated. The Council feels deeply indebted to Dr. George W. Jeffers for the effective service he rendered as advisor to the group.

THE Young Women's Christian Association gathered at the door to welcome the freshmen to their new home—Longwood College. During the next week they entertained the new girls at "Sing" and gave a reception at which time they met the faculty and "Y" Cabinet.

In February Religious Emphasis Week was held on our campus, and Rev. J. P. Allen as our inspirational speaker centered our thoughts around the "Y" theme—"Contagious Christianity."

Prayers, held each night during the year, continued to be one of the most important activities sponsored by the Y. W. C. A.

House Council

"BUT don't you realize one more call down will put me on campus!" This plea is one frequently made to members of the House Council. This duty of discipline is just one of many duties for the Longwood House Council. The student body is grateful for the efforts of the Council in maintaining that peace and quiet necessary for rest and study.

The purpose of the House Council is to formulate and enforce policies and regulations pertaining to life in the dormitories. This year the student body has cooperated in upholding those policies responsible for making the dormitories a better place in which to live.

The efficient house presidents and the hall presidents have formed the structure on which the organization is built. These house presidents — Marlene Lucas, Anne Snyder, Flo Pollard, and Betsy Jean Robertson—have worked faithfully at their jobs.

Throughout this year, our house mothers and hostesses have been most helpful and understanding. We have profited by the help of Mrs. Eastham, Miss Hamner, Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Tabb, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Rex, and Mrs. Holladay. We wish especially to thank Miss Gleaves for helping us to solve our problems and advising us whenever we were in need of advice. Barbara Assaid was our efficient president; the other officers were Jane Branch, vice-president; Jackie White, secretary; and Nell Crocker, treasurer.

Alpha Kappa Gamma

ALPHA Kappa Gamma is an honorary society formed for the purpose of recognizing students who have proved themselves outstanding in constructive leadership. Twenty-six years ago, under the guidance of Miss Florence H. Stubbs, Alpha Kappa Gamma was established through the co-ordinate interests of girls from Queens College, the University of South Carolina, and Farmville State Teachers College.

The officers of Joan Circle were the following: Betty Islin, president; Pat Altwegg, vice-president; Mary Denny Wilson, secretary; Lura Beavers, treasurer. We were capably guided this year by Miss Chambers and Mrs. Cover, who assisted us in the absence of Miss Burger.

Along came the favorite college weekend, Circus, which was labeled "Hallowe'en Capers" this year. Mary Jean Carlyle reigned as queen; Nancy T. Masters, Margaret Duke, and Sarah Lou Wendenburg were elected to the court. Ann Carter Wendenburg was ring master, and Jane Blake cracked her whip for the animals and clowns to perform. Everyone in school worked hard to make circus a success. The proceeds from the project were used to purchase a new public address system for the college dining room.

To foster high ideals, to promote coordination of various college activities, and to preserve the ideals and traditions of the college—these are the purposes of Alpha Kappa Gamma.

Scarborough, Mr. Meeker, E. Macon

The Colonnade

DURING the year our objective has been to produce in each Colonnade matter which the students would read with pride and interest.

We have published informative essays such as Mathis der Maler, by Lura Beavers. Local color was reflected in Pat McLemore's essay on Dr. John Peter Mettauer, one of the first surgeons in our country, and in Jackie Marshall's essay on Richard Molten, former president of Tuskegee College. A new feature has been added to the Colonnade: reviews of notable plays, concerts, recitals, and lectures attended by the students in and around Farmville. Another innovation has been to preview future performances of this nature scheduled to be held in this area. We have attempted to lighten the tone of the magazine through humorous articles, more cartoons, photographs, and art work.

Again this year the Colonnade sponsored a prose contest to promote interest in creative writing among the students. We offered separate prizes for short stories and for essays in order to enable the judges to evaluate each entry according to its own nature. First prizes went to Dot Armstrong for her short story The Night of the Storm, and to Patsy Lee Free for her essay To American Parents.

We wish to express our gratitude to Mr. Richard K. Meeker, our sponsor, for his able and constant assistance and to our advisors: Miss Lucile Jennings, Mrs. Mead Shackleford, Miss Annie Lee Ross, Miss Nancy Foster, and Mr. M. B. Coyner, for their guidance during the year.

The Rotunda

THE life of a journalist—even of the would-be type that the Rotunda claims —is an exciting whirl of deadlines, headlines, news, views, and galley proofs.

Editor-in-chief Ann Thomas and Business Manager Mary Ann Evans managed the Rotunda this year. The inseparable three—Shirley Ward, Phoebe Warner and Dot Douglas—filled the positions of managing editor, assistant managing editor, and news editor. Always on the lookout for that human interest touch was Martha Donaldson, feature editor.

Gloria Anderton, desk editor, checked for commas and colons; Loretta Brooking and Ann Jones, staff artist, provided the second page trademarks, the lineoleum cuts. Heading the advertising and circulation staffs were Betsy Welbon and Muriel Boswell; Ann Weatherholtz served as copy editor.

Our important columnists were Joyce Gillchrest, Carolyn Stanley, Margaret

Miller, Lou Wilder, and Ann Thaxton. A new position this year, filled by "Peanuts" Winder, was that of photography editor. Much credit for another successful newspaper year is due the reporters, feature writers, typists, and circulation staff members who were always there when the news was "hot."

It's not all work and no play for the Rotunda staff, however. We celebrated Christmas with a waffle supper at Longwood House—quite a change from the newspaper office! And in December five staff members attended the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association Convention in Lynchburg.

The Virginian

WITH great enthusiasm, the staff of the '54 Virginian met in May to begin its work under the direction of Mary Anne King, newly appointed editor. Lou Kitts served as assistant editor.

We really began the year's activities in earnest early in October. The entire staff was kept busy selling annuals before the November 15th deadline. Pat Altwegg, business manager, and Dot Vaden, assistant, had never before been so busy with money and receipts.

Donnie Devine, photography editor, handled the scheduling of the individual and group pictures very efficiently. The weather interfered only once, in the form of a six and one-half inch snow. Caroline Stoneman and Elsie Meade Webb were chosen as freshman representatives on the staff in January.

Nancy Nelson, our literary editor, had quite a job trying to get in all the organization write-ups. Miss Foster made the many corrections and additions needed to perfect our material. The art work was again well-done by Ann Carter Wendenburg, with the assistance and guidance of the art advisor, Miss Bedford.

When that long-awaited day in May arrived, we were very happy to see the product of our year's work and fun.

With sincere gratitude and appreciation, we wish to thank our advisor, Mr. Mac. He was always there when we needed him to give his assistance, his excellent advice, and to add humor to our work.

Pi Delta Epsilon

As a clearing house for problems of all publications on campus, Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalism fraternity, opened its year by initiating ten new members: Dot Douglas, Donnie Devine, Mary Anne Evans, Lou Kitts, Jean Carol Parker, Betty Scarborough, Ann Thomas, Shirley Ward, Phoebe Warner, and Ann Carter Wendenburg.

Mary Fleming Carter was the society's president; and Mary Anne King, secretary-treasurer. Pat Altwegg and Mary Denny Wilson were the senior members.

Under the able guidance and direction of Dr. Marvin W. Schlegel, Pi Delta Epsilon worked toward its journalistic purpose: "It is the purpose of the fraternity to elevate the cause of journalism, to foster the mutual welfare of student publications, to develop the truest fraternal spirit among its members, to encourage loyalty to their Alma Mater, and to reward the journalists working on the student publications for their efforts, services, and accomplishments by admission to its membership."

The society also seeks to promote on campus a closer coordination between the various college publications and to give recognition to students who have worked for one of the three major publications.

The dominant tradition of the fraternity is service. It is through service that the national organization has become one of the most important journalism fraternities in the country. The Longwood College chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon was founded in 1950.

Standing: A. Wendenburg, Devine, J. Parker, D. Douglas, S. Ward, Scarborough, P. Warner

Kappa Delta Pi

THE Beta Epsilon Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, since its foundation in 1928, has had as its main purpose the encouragement of high professional, intellectual, and personal standards.

Our officers for the year were Lucy Mann, president; Mary Anne King, vice-president; Dolly Horne, secretary; Sylvia West, treasurer; and Fay Greenland, historian. These officers worked faithfully under the wise guidance of Dr. Ethel Sutherland.

In November nineteen students were admitted to Kappa Delta Pi: Joyce Wilkerson, Carolyn Stanley, Herbert Goodman, Betty Frances Scarborough, Barbara Assaid, Eloise Macon, Mary Denny Wilson, Patricia McLemore, Elizabeth Kent, Betty West, Virginia Phelps, Donnetta Devine, Margaret Worthington, Shirley Roby, Gail Dickson, Nancy Nelson, Dorothy Vaden, Florence Blake and Elizabeth Islin.

In December Dr. Earley showed slides taken on his trip to England and France. Other members of the student body were invited to come with Kappa Delta Pi members to this program.

An event of each year is the annual Kappa Delta Pi banquet, held in the Tea Room. Dr. Lancaster was guest speaker this year.

Initiation was held for new members in March. Late in the spring a tea-reception was given in honor of the freshmen and the sophomores who ranked in the upper quartile of their respective classes. This helps acquaint the students with Kappa Delta Pi.

Pi Gamma Mu

Pi Gamma Mu is a national social science fraternity. The purposes of the organization are to advance the cause of scientific study of social problems, and to instill in the members of the society the ideals of scholarship, the attitude and methods of science, and the desire for social service.

The Longwood College chapter of Pi Gamma Mu is the Virginia Gamma Chapter, established on this campus in 1927 by Dr. James Walmsley, professor emeritus.

In October Pi Gamma Mu sponsored a most interesting assembly speaker: Madam Induk Park of Korea. Her talk, "My Country and My People," was designed to interest the college in sponsoring a Korean student.

It was the goal of the group this year to bring the organization more to the heart of the campus and to the knowledge of the student body. Through joining the Virginia Association of the United Nations and providing material for many organizations, by planning the assembly program, and by welcoming more new members in the spring, this goal was realized. It was, also, the group's goal to have a closer relationship with the other state chapters. The spring project of the Virginia Gamma Chapter helped realize this goal.

The Chapter was again sponsored by Dr. C. G. G. Moss. The officers were Virginia Sutherland, president; Herbert Goodman, vice-president; Lynell Bradshaw, secretary; and Mary Ann Evans, treasurer.

Beorc Eh Thorn

BEORC Eh Thorn, an English honor society on the Longwood campus, has as its aims the promotion among its members and among others of the College, the enjoyment and appreciation of literature, the cultivation of creative writing, the use of good English, and the recognition of outstanding achievement in the field of English study.

Our main project for the year was the accumulation of files containing a short college record of each member of Beorc Eh Thorn. The programs concerned the development of the short story and novel and their effect on our civilization.

Two especially pleasant events of our year were an informal meeting at the home of Mrs. Davis in February and our annual picnic at Longwood Estate in May.

The officers for this year were Ann Foster, president; Jeanne Lynch Hobbs, vice-president; Nancy Nelson, secretary; and Ellen Porter, treasurer.

Alpha Psi Omega

ALPHA Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic fraternity, was organized on the Longwood campus at the beginning of this year for the purpose of providing an honor society for those doing a high standard of work in dramatics.

The fraternity is not intended to take the place of the regular dramatic club, but as students qualify, they are rewarded by election to membership in the society. It was felt by those who petitioned Alpha Psi Omega for a charter at Longwood, that quite often a stimulus and incentive of this sort is helpful, as students wonder what credit they are getting for many hours of work, either before or behind the footlights.

The Longwood Players remains the active dramatic organization on campus with all interested students eligible, and Alpha Psi Omega serves only as an honor fraternity to recognize those who have done outstanding work.

Our officers for the year were Nancy Nelson, president; Ellen Porter, vice-president; Sally Wilson, secretary; and Tom Moore, treasurer.

Student Standards

STUDENT Standards carried on its work of settling problems arising between the students, the faculty, and the administration. Our biggest project for the year was working with the Y. W. C. A., soliciting donations for the College Chest. The money collected was divided among the March of Dimes, the Red Cross, the I. C. U., and the W. S. U.

Various committees worked on proposals brought to Student Standards by the student body. Quiet signs were placed in the halls of sophomore building to eliminate noise during the meetings held in the Honors Room. We have succeeded in securing a light behind the library and in having bricks replaced in front of senior building. Several pianos in the college have been tuned.

Suggestions were made by the students to have more telephones placed in sophomore building and to secure bulletin boards for junior building. Plans have been made to evolve a more effective lighting arrangement in the dome of the Rotunda.

Students have had an opportunity to offer suggestions for projects they would like for Student Standards to undertake.

We want to thank our faculty members, Mrs. Tabb, Miss Draper, Miss Gleaves, Miss Asher, Miss Chambers, Mr. Merritt, and Dr. Earley for their invaluable guidance and advice.

Lou Kitts served as chairman of the committee this year. Shirley Ward was secretary; Helen Warriner, chairman of the regulations committee; Peggy Worthington, chairman of the Year's Calendar.

Granddaughters Club

THE Granddaughters Club began its year with twenty-six new members, who were initiated early in October. They were informed as to the purpose of the organization: to bring together all present students who are daughters or granddaughters of alumnae of the college.

At the party that followed the initiation service, old girls gathered around Miss Wall, our sponsor and good friend, and chatted about the days when our mothers were here. Each one felt the bond that had extended from 1925 or earlier until 1953.

Circus brought all the Granddaughters together to decorate the booth in the Rec with traditional purple and green. Ring toss, a game familiar to our club, was as popular as usual.

A short reception planned by our social committee—Sue Garber, Dale Brothers, and Nancy Saunders—was held in November for the Alumnae Council when they met here.

Founders Day came on March 27, and the Granddaughters, dressed in white, were on hand in the Rotunda, in the halls and at the luncheon to be guides and hostesses to all returning alumnae.

Our efficient officers were the following: Clare Davis, president; Eloise Macon, vice-president; Alice Callaway, secretary-treasurer; and Georgia Jackson, reporter. Also Miss Wall, ever faithful, guided us through a most successful year.

We ended our school year with a picnic in May, when plans were discussed for the coming year.

Future Teachers of America

THE J. L. Jarman Chapter of Future Teachers of America was organized at Longwood in 1930. Its purpose is to develop an interest in the professional side of the teaching profession among the students who will be the future teachers of our land. It seeks to develop professional attitudes, desirable qualities, and leadership abilities which will be of value to any future teacher.

Future Teachers selects its members from juniors and seniors who have been recommended by their department heads for outstanding qualifications as future teachers. In the fall thirty-eight new members were admitted.

The Longwood F.T.A. was especially privileged this fall to have Mrs. Wilda Faust, Executive Secretary of the National Committee of F.T.A. on our campus for a three-day visit. While Mrs. Faust was here, she not only spoke to the F.T.A. members, but also addressed the regular assembly of the student body. She held several conferences with the F.T.A. officers and was the speaker for the initiation of new members at the November meeting. Miss Katherine Hoyle, Director of Field Service of the Virginia Education Association was also present at this meeting.

The officers for this year were Billy Tomlinson, president; Fay Greenland, vice-president; Wanda Doll, secretary; Ann Moore, treasurer; and Mary Ann Evans, librarian. Dr. J. P. Wynne was the advisor to the group.

Association of Childhood Education

THE Association of Childhood Education was formed in 1930 by the merging of two organizations, the International Kindergarten Union and the International Council for Primary Education. This organization is composed of those girls interested in the education of small children.

The purposes of the Association are to work for the education and well being of children; to bring into active cooperation all groups interested in children, in the homes, the school, and the community; and to raise the standard of professional training for teachers and leaders in the field.

We initiated forty-one new elementary majors this year. The officers who led us through the year were Lois A. Crutchfield, president; Ellen M. Porter, vice-president; Betsy Jean Robertson, secretary; Virginia F. Sutherland, treasurer; and Betty Frances Gillette, publications representative. Early in the fall we welcomed Miss Kate G. Trent, our advisor. We thank her sincerely for her guidance in the activities of the organization.

For our project this year we chose to help a family of children, two girls and a boy, who are students in the Farmville Elementary School. Because of the contributions of our members we were able to give the children gifts at Thanksgiving and Christmas, and school supplies all during the year.

French Club

Seated: Dessaix, McLemore, Utley
Standing: F. Blake, Blackman, P. Johnson, N. Jones

OUR Cercle Francais was a great success again this year, commencing with the arrival of our Parisian import, Catherine Dessaix. First on the agenda for the year was our Circus booth with the unfailing peanuts. Our jukebox dance in November was considered one of the best of the year. In December we gave our annual Christmas party with the Spanish Club, which early stirred the Yuletide spirit. The presentation of the French film "La Belle et La Bete" excited the imagination of everyone with its delightful fantasy.

Our programs this year were wide in interest range and drew on the talents of the members for French dramatizations, quizzes, art slides with explanations and piano and violin duets of French composition.

To Miss Draper, our advisor, and Catherine, we express our thanks for having made this a most successful year. With "a l'annee prochaine," we ended our session.

Spanish Club

MOTTO: "Lazos mas estrechos entre las Americas."

EL Club Espanol meets regularly once a month with programs in Spanish, consisting of short skits, reports, and songs. Our special interest this year has been Chile, because our attractive informant, Silvia Bascour, comes directly from Santiago.

Important activities of the year included the circus booth (remember peanuts?): the Christmas fiesta, our gay party given jointly with the French Club; the art film "Guernica," which was shown to the entire school; and a Mexican movie, "Maria Candelaria."

Our officers for the year were: Moneda Key, president; Fay Greenland, vice-president; Rebecca Baird, secretary; Mary Hutchinson, treasurer; Helen Warriner, reporter; and Lorene Allen, pianist. In all, we have enjoyed a successful year. Viva!

Commercial Club

THE Commercial Club, which was organized in 1939, is a growing organization. The purposes of this organization are the advancement of learning and interest in the field of Business Education and the promotion of understanding and fellowship among the members of the Club.

There are two classes of membership in the Club, active and honorary. Students who major in Business Education are active members. Faculty members of the Business Education Department are honorary members. They constitute an Advisory Board from which a sponsor is elected each year.

The Commercial Club started the school year happily. In October forty-eight new members were initiated into the club. We also welcomed a new faculty member of the Business Education Department, Mr. W. A. Leeper.

We had our customary booth at the Alpha Kappa Gamma Circus, where we successfully sold balloons for souvenirs. In December our juke box dance, held in the "Rec" was a success. In December we also had our annual Christmas party. Everyone exchanged gifts and had fun. The year ended with a picnic at Longwood Estate.

The officers of the club were Sylvia West, president; Laura Trent, vice-president; Frances Norther, secretary; Mary Lou Barlow, treasurer; and Ruth Gilliland, reporter. Mr. Norman O. Myers served as sponsor. We are very grateful to him for his guidance and help in making this a successful year.

Longwood Library League

LONGWOOD Library League, Tri-L for short, is composed of majors in library science and the fourteen students who are members of the library staff. The Tri-L's officers for 1953-54 included Mary Cowles, president; Pollyanna Martin, vice-president; Ann Lush, secretary; and Barbara Moore, treasurer. Miss Marion Terry, Assistant Librarian and Professor of Library Science, was our sponsor, and Miss Irving Armstrong, Mrs. Martha LeStourgeon, Mrs. Anne Jeffers, and Dr. Beverley Ruffin were our advisory members. Honorary members of our club are Miss Louise Johnson, Elementary School Librarian, and Miss Kate O'Brien, Librarian of the Farmville High School. In the spring we welcomed ten members into Tri-L: Nita Goad, Jo Hillsman, Pat Jones, Jeannette Morris, Charlotte Phillips, Mildred Sutherland, Mary Ann Hudnell, Barbara Powell, and Nicole Rothe.

Tri-L this year chose as its special projects to send books to a needy library in Spain and to conduct tours through the library for visiting groups. The club also acted as host at the Annual Library Conference held the week-end of April 3, 1954. Mrs. Mildred Blattner, Librarian, Arlington County Library, and Dr. Francis Simkins, Professor of History, Longwood College, were the main speakers at this conference, which was the fifth library conference to be held at Longwood.

We feel that the Tri-L had a very successful year.

Home Economics Club

THE Longwood College Home Economics Club has had another eventful year under the leadership of our officers: Betty Jane West, president; Joan Williams, vice-president; Helen Marie Wood, secretary; and Jackie Palmer, treasurer.

In October a group attended the meeting of the Home Economics section of the Virginia Education Association in Richmond. The club was also well represented at the annual State Convention of the Virginia Home Economics Association.

Our Council consisted of the officers and one representative from each class. These representatives were the following: Mary Ann Jennings, freshman; Loretta Brooking, sophomore; Ellen Brent Dize, junior; and Mary Barksdale, senior.

November and December were our busiest months. Our club girls were ringing door bells and taking orders for the plum puddings and fruit cakes which we sold for Christmas. The club also sold Christmas cards, and we were pleased with the success of our projects.

The oustanding event of our year was a banquet in honor of Miss Katherine Tupper and Miss Bessie Jeter, who are retiring from the Home Economics staff this year. They will always be remembered by students in the Home Economics department.

Our thanks and gratitude go to our sponsor Mrs. Nell Griffin, Acting Head of the Home Economics Department, for her encouragement and guidance throughout the year.

Northern Neck Club

THE Northern Neck is a beautiful peninsula situated between the Potomac and Rappahannock Rivers. The historic and natural beauty, and the warmth and friendliness of the people make those who have been there want to return.

The Northern Neck Club was established in 1926 under the able leadership of our own "Charlie Hop," who is a true "Northern Necker." His generous and understanding friendship inspires us to make each year in the club's history just a little better than the last.

This year our club boasts thirty-two members, including fifteen freshmen, who were welcomed in the fall by the traditional hamburger feast at the home of Mr. Graham. We still have as our motto "Fishing for Knowledge," but we have our share of good times also.

In November we had a delightful picnic supper, entertaining several high-school seniors from Northern Neck, who were here for the week-end. Another memorable event of the year was the Sectional Club Jubilee held in January in the Rec. The sectional clubs combined and acted as hosts for this occasion. The main feature of the evening was a white-elephant sale, which proved to be quite a success.

This year's club officers were Margie Smallwood, president; Ellen Brent Dize, vice-president; Anna Mae Sanders, secretary; and Effie Sydnor, treasurer.

We look forward to a wonderful summer in the Northern Neck, and hope to bring back many new girls with us when we return next fall.

Richmond Club

UNDER the leadership of our president, Ilia Des Portes, the Richmond Club of 1953-54 again had a successful college year. Twenty-three freshmen from Richmond and its surrounding suburbs joined our membership roll when they registered for classes late in September. Our efforts to welcome the girls from the "Capital City" helped them to feel at home at Longwood. When among a group of many unfamiliar people, a girl finds nothing more encouraging than chatting with someone from her home town; the Richmond Club members tried to enliven and enrich the first week of college for all girls from Richmond.

At our fall and spring picnics, visiting high-school girls from Richmond joined in our fun and became familiar with the activities of our organization. The remaining two of our quarterly meetings were business sessions.

The Sectional Clubs' new "Jamboree," held this winter, proved to be a frolicing affair. The Richmond Club's white-elephant sale raised money for entertaining high-school students. Money was also raised at our club's booth at Circus. Our annual club tea, held in Richmond during the Christmas holidays, was host to 108 prospective members of the class of '58.

Our other officers were Beth Kent, vice-president; Jean Coghill, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Kathleen Cover, faculty sponsor.

We hope that many new girls from Richmond will join our club next year to make it a successful and happy year. We wish the best in the future to our graduates.

Southwest Virginia Club

FROM the land where the sky is the bluest, the grass the greenest, and the trees the tallest come girls each fall to Longwood. They then join our Southwest Virginia Club. Girls from all over our great region spent many happy hours talking over old times and mutual friends. In the hearts of our girls, the "Great Southwest" is the greatest of all sections of Virginia.

Phoebe Ann Warner of Roanoke was president of the club; Elizabeth DeHaven of Radford, vice-president; Betty Lee Copenhaver of Roanoke, secretary; and Nancy Lee Harris, also of Roanoke, treasurer. We were very grateful to Mr. Attix, our faithful advisor, who helped our club to become a success last year.

The main purpose of our club is to establish friendships among the Southwest Virginia girls, and to interest high-school seniors from the Southwestern area in coming to Longwood. We hope that next year more girls from the Southwest will join us.

As one of our projects for the year, we sponsored a cake sale to earn money to entertain visiting girls from our area. Also this year, we were in charge of the entertainment for the first Sectional Club Carnival to be given at Longwood. Although this is the first of its kind, we hope that it can be made an annual affair.

We hope that as a result of this year's work, we will gain more girls and have a bigger and better club next year.

Chalimeck Tri-County Club

In April, 1953, the girls from Charlotte, Mecklenburg, and Halifax Counties united to form a regional club. The purpose of this club was to foster fellowship among the girls from Southside Virginia and to acquaint future Longwood students from this area with the college and its activities.

In the fall, our membership numbered twenty-nine. Officers elected to direct our activities for the year were president, Anne Thaxton; vice-president, Jackie Palmer; secretary-treasurer, Patricia Cantrell; reporter, Marilyn Thompson and sponsor, Miss Nancy Chambers.

In the spring of '53, we sponsored a juke box dance in the rec. After the Christmas holidays this year, we participated in a sectional club "Jamboree". We had a gala time working with the other sectional clubs to provide an evening of entertainment for students and guests. Amazement describes the expressions of those opening their grab bags, especially those hoping to win the "mystery prize" donated by Charlie Hop.

Under the capable leadership of the officers and our sponsor, we had a successful beginning and we feel that the club will progress each year. We are looking forward to keeping in contact with each other throughout the summer and becoming acquainted with the new students from our section at our fall picnic.

Longwood Players

THE Longwood Players had a very successful season of play production. The Players, under the direction of Dr. C. L. S. Earley, brought the theatre to the campus again. Angel Street, a Victorian melodrama, was presented in November. Ellen Porter, Patsy Abernathy, Jeanne Lynch Hobbs, Woody Rice of Hampden-Sydney, Tom Moore, and James Parker gave a thrilling performance. In March the Longwood Players and the Hampden-Sydney Jongleurs presented the second play, Romeo and Juliet. This Shakespearian play, with a huge cast, starred Nancy Nelson and Woody Rice in the title roles. The play-production class constructed the very difficult set, and Libby McClung, with the help of the wardrobe department, costumed the play.

In October the organization sponsored the Barter Theatre's production of Eugene O'Neill's Ah Wilderness! The sponsoring of the Barter Theatre is an annual project of the Players. We strive to bring more and different types of theatre to the campus.

In the fall the club initiated the following as new members: Lou Beavers, Norma Jean Croft, Dolly Horn, Eloise Macon, Frances Marker, Libby McClung, George Ogburn, James Parker, Fannie Scott, Elizabeth Sutherland, Beverly Taylor, Jean Baber, and Ellen Thomas. The officers for the year were: president, Ellen Porter; vice-president, Nancy Nelson; secretary, Virginia Sutherland; treasurer, Gaynelle Edwards; and technical directors, Tom Moore and Beverley Taylor.

During the Easter holidays the Players sponsored a trip to New York to attend several Broadway productions, the third trip that the club had sponsored to New York.

The club this year presented silver cups to the best actor and the best actress of the year. This cup is to be awarded each year and left in the college, with the engraved names.

The goal, as it is each year, is to bring the theatre into the hearts of the student body. With the help of many students and faculty members this goal has been reached this year.

The Choir

THE Longwood College Choir, under the able direction of Dr. John W. Molnar, in this year had a year of unusual success. Our first project was the presentation of the annual Christmas Concert, which was presented at Franklin, Virginia, on December fifth under the sponsorship of the Franklin Rotary Club. A delightful reception was held afterwards in the Town House. Later in December, we presented our concert here at Longwood and at Hampden-Sydney College. Principal soloists were Dottie Morris, Dolly Horne, and Mary Ann Wright.

On March 27th, our Founder's Day, we were happy to sing for our guests in Jarman Auditorium. Our spring concerts in April included selections from Handel's Elijah, The Chorus and Dances of the Polovetzian Maidens, taken from Prince Igor by Borodin and the Cantata, Trial By Jury, by Gilbert and Sullivan. Those taking the principal parts in the Cantata were Dottie Morris and Joe White, George Pillow, Tom Thorne, Jim White, Larry Hoover of Hampden-Sydney. On June sixth, our seniors sang with us for the last time at the graduation exercises.

Our officers for the year were Nan Ellen Bland, president; Wilma Ann Salmon, treasurer; Mary Ellen Hawthorne and Mary Ann Wright, secretaries; and Lu Beavers, accompanist.

We thank Mr. Roy Jesson, our organist, and Miss Virgilia Bugg, our sponsor, for their interest throughout the year.

Chorus

THE Chorus was reorganized in 1953 under the excellent leadership and direction of Mr. Charles E. Attix. Cooperation and diligence on the part of each member made this year's work successful.

Our first appearance was made at an assembly program in November. The soloist for the performance was Carolyn Clark. We also participated in the annual Christmas concert at both Longwood and Hampden-Sydney.

The chorus is divided into the following sections:

First sopranos—Patricia Ashby, Frances Bacon, Dreama Burchett, Jane Brugh, Carolyn Clark, Roberta Clegg, Connie Gouyer, Mary Ann Maddox, Mary Agnes Patterson, Ava Ann Perdue, Frances Rain, Daisy Jane Spain, Elizabeth Sutherland, Ann Thomas, and Jane Wells.

Second Sopranos—Barbara Ellen Bane, Margaret Beavers, Jackie Edwards, Carolyn Gallagher, Winnie Louhoff, Katherine Naugle, Jeannette Puckette, Shirley Tennison, Jean Windley.

Altos—Ann Caldwell, Ellie Everett, Joan Harvey, Jean Mann, Virginia Pearce, Joyce Pulley.

Our officers for the year were the following: Carolyn Clark, president; Jean Windley, vice-president; Mary Ann Maddox, secretary; Joan Harvey, treasurer; Elizabeth Sutherland, librarian.

Baptist Student Union

TWO days before the freshmen invaded Longwood last September, the B.S.U. council met for a pre-school retreat at Camp Green Bay to plan for the year's work. Rippy and Charles Standridge, Francis Hudgins, and Mr. Winders, the hike and weiner roast at Goodwin Lake made a memorable week-end.

Welcoming the freshmen and introducing them to B.S.U. by a play, a reception at the Center, and an Indian Party at the church made that first week fly by! October came and on Hallowe'en, B.S.U.'ers from all over the state swarmed Richmond at the fall convention at Grove Avenue Church. In November Mr. Laing journeyed back to Farmville and taught the book "What Baptists Believe" for our fall study course.

With a new skating rink in Farmville, the B.S.U. planned a skating party just before Christmas. Those who weren't so athletically inclined remained at the Center to sing carols and prepare refreshments for the weary skaters. The Lincoln Banquet with Rogers Smith as our guest speaker came shortly after mid-term exams.

April brought Bob Denny for our Youth Revival, and at the last of April, South Boston opened its gates to the State Spring Retreat and received us with much grace and hospitality. The May air, the truck ride out to Dr. Johnson's farm, and the food made the picnic one of the most delightful events of the year. We thank Miss Lucile Peak, Mr. Bruner, and Dr. Johnson for their help through the year.

Canterbury Club

THE National Canterbury Association is a fellowship of Episcopal faculty and student groups. Our Canterbury Club is composed of students from Longwood and Hampden-Sydney.

The purpose of the Canterbury Club is expressed in its motto, "Pro Christo per Ecclesiam." The purpose elaborated becomes multiple: "to provide an opportunity for students to receive the teachings of Christ through the faith and practice of the Episcopal Church; to send out into the total life of the colleges, students who will play a full-time part in the life of the institutions in which the club exists; to continually question its own life and examine its program; to provide for expression of its aims through prayer and the sacraments, study, service, giving and evangelism; and especially to witness in our colleges and universities for the Lordship of Christ over the whole life of mankind; to initiate a missionary movement among Episcopal students; and finally to become more Christ-centered."

During this past year the combined Canterbury Club of the two colleges has atempted to fulfill its purpose through a finely integrated program of worship, fellowship, service, study and recreation. The bi-monthly suppers held in the parish house have created a spirit of friendship and fellowship which have been an incentive to accomplish bigger and better things.

Newman Club

IN September Father Fenton welcomed all members of the Newman Club with an informal party held in the anteroom of St. Therese's Catholic Church. We were happy to observe an increase in the membership of the Newman Club. Doris Garlasco was elected president; Doris Kvasnicka, secretary-treasurer. Other members of the club were Darling Anderson, Silvia Bascour, Catherine Dessaix, Charlotte Ellett, Barbara Felthaus, Anne Lee Gay, Elizabeth Hoffman, Elizabeth Jenkins, Anne Mullen, Mary Robertson, and Delores Winder. The Newman Club was glad to have Arleen Rose join as a new member in February.

The meetings were held each Thursday at 7 p.m. Girls of all denominations were cordially invited to attend. Each meeting consisted of an informal business session, studies taken from the New Testament, and a "question box" discussion. We, the Newman Club, are very grateful to Father Fenton, who has been the inspiring leader of the club throughout the year.

Every member of the Newman Club expresses his sincere appreciation for the deep understanding and insight which Father Fenton revealed to us during our discussions. If direction towards good Christian habits is extended and deepened by the study of certain lessons, there is no doubt that these lessons will be abundantly fruitful in good, both for the individual and for the general welfare. These are some of the things which the Newman Club signifies on our college campus.

Wesley Foundation

DURING orientation week the council members were present to greet the freshmen. Then, we entertained the new students with a picnic in the backyard of the student center.

Our activities throughout the year included many interesting things. Besides our inspirational morning and evening programs, reports were made on the National Methodist Student Conference and other conferences held in the state during the year. During Christmas holidays students and the student director attended the Fifth Quadrennial National Methodist Student Conference held at Lawrence, Kansas. In February a representative was sent to the Christian Citizenship Seminar in New York and Washington. In November our group was host to a regional Methodist Student Conference. The regional and state conferences were well attended by our students during the year. In April Wesley Foundation had charge of Union Vespers. In early spring a week was set aside for focus on vocations. In May, the old and new officers went to Sydnor's Lake for their spring retreat.

The center was our college home all the year especially during examinations. At the center we always find good fellowship. There were several open houses during the year for students, and other socials were held at the church.

Our thanks go to Miss Malinda Ayres, Rev. Charles O. Kidd, "Charlie-Hop" French, and Miss Mary Clay Hiner. They were always there to help and guide us.

Westminister Fellowship

THIS has been an enriching year for all of us in the Westminster Fellowship. Our Cabinet Pre-school retreat was a great success. We met at the home of Mrs. C. F. Wilson, our advisor, and it was good to see her and Kay Arrowood, our faithful student director, again.

Among the varied events of our year were talks by Mrs. Frank Crawford, who spoke on "The Plan of Union;" Ed Stanfield from Union Theological Seminary; and Robert Shane, missionary from Brazil. As always, we gladly welcomed for a weekend the visiting teams for ATS and UTS.

Among our social activities have been our monthly supper meetings, held the first Sunday in each month alternately at Hampden-Sydney and at the Farmville Presbyterian Church; the welcoming party for our new students; the parties at Kay's; and the spaghetti party.

Words cannot express our deep appreciation for the loyal support of our friends Reverend James R. Kennedy, pastor of the Farmville church, and Reverend W. B. Rodgers of the Hampden-Sydney church.

One of our main projects this year was to start an outpost Sunday School at Oak Grove. Each Sunday we have gone there to teach and to help the church.

This year has been one of fun, fellowship and inspiration under the leadership of Royster Lyle and Carolyn Stanley, co-presidents; Nancy Nelson, vice-president; Barbara Rickman, secretary; and Dick Newkirk, treasurer.

Freshman Commission

THE Freshman Commission of the class of 1957 was installed early last fall at a very impressive service held in the Johns Memorial Episcopal Church.

The commission participated in numerous activities during the year. Refreshment booths were managed by the commission during intermission at the Junior and Senior dances. A juke-box dance was also held. At Christmas time the commission decorated the Christmas tree in the Rotunda, and after the traditional hanging of the green, the Freshman Commission assembled around the lighted tree to lead the rest of the school in Christmas carols. The commission, as a part of the Y. W. C. A., took an active part in the work and projects carried on in the "Y."

In addition to its regular work, the Freshman Commission carried on various projects during the year and with part of the money which was raised, held a cabin party for the members at Longwood Estate.

The members of the commission are the following: Loretta Kuhn, who was chairman of the commission, Caroline Stoneman, Darling Anderson, Betty Jean Jenkins, Gerry Luck, Nancy Lenz, Sara Lou Wendenburg, Nancy Tolley, Margaret Beavers, Ann White Thomas, Kitty Kamps, Harriette Browning, and Jeanne Saunders. The Freshman Commission will be eager to welcome the class of '58 and to help them get adjusted at Longwood.

Cotillion Club

THIS had been another successful year for the Cotillion Club. With the beginning of the fall semester, twenty-one upperclassmen were invited to join us; in the spring, sixty freshmen received bids. Those accepting the bids wore the traditional yellow ribbons around their ankles for one week.

Saturday, March 20, dawned early for 81 "goats," who began their rounds from room to room keeping appointments, made with the older members to make beds and do small tasks expected of them. At sundown, their weary, but enjoyable, day was not quite over: they had to report to "goat court." Tired and aching, our diligent new members crawled into bed with only one more big task to do, decorating for our dance.

Our annual Cotillion Club dance was held on Saturday night, April 3, 1954, in the college gym. Lovely net and organdy evening dresses of pastel shades and dainty fluffiness presented a beautiful background to the music of Dean Hudson and his orchestra. The setting was breath-taking as we entered the gym, and the decorations of colored crepe paper streamers and cheerful spring flowers were lovely. Gay programs, given to each member, added to the festivities of the occasion.

Every member cooperated to make this dance the most memorable of the year. Mr. Boyd Coyner again helped us faithfully to make this year such a successful one for the Cotillion Club. Jane Branch served as our president; Virginia Berry, as business manager; Patty Derring, as dance chairman; Nellie Lucy, as secretary and treasurer; and Ann Foster, as figure leader.

Chi

IN 1900 the organization known to all on campus as Chi was founded. The spirit behind Chi has been present at our college as long as the college itself.

Each year the questions arise: Who is on Chi? What do they do? The students are ever seeking to find the identity of those friends who call themselves a member of this organization. Chi is responsible for a great many unnoticed improvements that have taken place on our campus. It gave the corner stones of Edith Stevens Hall and Jarman Hall and was responsible for the landscaping of the dell at Longwood Estate. There are many other projects which it is undertaking for the future students of Longwood.

In the spring it is customary for the members to reveal their identity as they circle a bonfire commending those girls whose spirit and loyalty to the college are felt by all. This year we were revealed as Mason Moore, Mary Denny Wilson, Else Wente, Betty Islin, Jean Hodges, Nell Copley, Barbara Assaid, and Mary Anne King.

Our many thanks go to Charlie Hop whose interest and constant help will be remembered by the members of Chi.

Athletics

J. Hodges, Waitman, Wente, Miss Iler, M. A. Ward

EVERY student at Longwood is a member of the Athletic Association, which is a major organization on campus. The Athletic Association Council, consisting of the president, the vice-president, the secretary, the treasurer, the managers of various sports, and our advisor, Miss Iler, govern the activities of the organization. Major officers are elected by the student body, and managers are chosen by the officers and advisor. The council members work together to set up a sports program to advance the interest of every student.

Hockey

TO have their class colors displayed on the color cup is the goal toward which each class works. Sister classes support each other in trying to win as many events as possible, and the classes winning the most are allowed to have their colors displayed on the cup during the following year. Other events sponsored by the A.A. are the song contest and the color rush. In the song contest each class presents an original song. All of the songs are judged, and a prize is presented for the best. This year it went to the Junior Class.

Color Rush is the annual event in which the fastest runners from each class compete to put their colors on the various campus buildings. Again this year Red 'n Whites displayed the most banners.

The varsity hockey team closed its season sporting another undefeated record.

Basketball

Patsy Sanford was the team's able captain and manager. At the state hockey tournament Shirley Mallory was chosen All-State goalie, and Clara Borum, reserve center forward. These girls participated in the Southeast Hockey Tournament in Baltimore, Maryland. Captained by Clara Borum and managed by Roberta Wiatt, the varsity basketball team also had a successful season. After varsity games, class games were held in hockey and basketball, as well as in volleyball.

At the beginning of each year blue and white blazers are awarded by the Athletic Association to those seniors who have been outstanding in athletic participation. These are the highest athletic awards in college and is based upon participation, sportsmanship, and scholarship. Patsy Sanford and Else Wente received white blazers this year, and Eleanor Koch and Roberta Wiatt, the blue blazers.

Swimming

H_2O Club

THE H_2O Club has been working diligently this year to create an even greater interest in swimming. Each and every member has done her best in the achievement of this goal. Under the capable and understanding direction and guidance of our faculty advisor, Miss Rebecca Brockenbrough, we have progressed. Our officers Elizabeth Boswell, president; Lois Crutchfield, secretary; Ilia DesPortes, treasurer—have given their time and leadership for the H_2O Club.

In the fall, Roberta Wiatt was elected to be in charge of our annual water pageant, which is presented in December. Edith Frame assisted Roberta in the directing and composing of the pageant. The theme, "Decorating the Christmas Tree," was presented through a narration spoken by Beth Kent. During the pageant, stars, balls, toys, and a Christmas tree were formed by the swimmers. There were the traditional fancy divers and clowns to add to the entertainment for all. Some of the swimming classes under the direction of Eleanor Koch performed in the pageant.

Eleanor Koch worked in cooperation with the Red Cross in teaching and coaching many students for the Senior Life-Saving and their Instructor's certificates in swimming.

This year the members of the club were responsible for life-guarding at recreational swimming, which was held twice a week. We feel that in this way the purpose of the club was carried out—to promote swimming.

Monogram Club

THE Monogram Club's main purposes are to stimulate interest in sports and to recognize athletic ability, scholarship, and sportsmanship.

The success of our circus booth was due to Edith Frame, who decorated the booth in blue and white with small L. C. monograms in the background.

In January new members elected into the club were Mary Lou Barlow, Ilia Desportes, Hilda Hartis, Helen Waitman, and Mary Ann Ward.

We sponsored "Red and White Day" on February 15 and "Green and White Day" on March 17. On these two days red hearts and green shamrocks were sold by Monogram Club members. The selling of green and red hockey sticks before the class games was a success. This tradition helps to promote class spirit at Longwood.

The cabin at Longwood Estate was again under our supervision, and we had organizations sign up for its use on the weekends. In the spring we held our picnic there along with installation services.

Our officers for the year were Patsy Sanford, president; Johanna Biddlecomb, secretary; and Lib Boswell, treasurer. The old members included Johanna Biddlecomb, Lib Boswell, Edith Frame, Jean Hodges, Eleanor Koch, Ann Mallory, Lucy Mann, Mason Moore, Ann Parkinson Wagner, Patsy Sanford, Else Wente, Roberta Wiatt, Mildred Parker, and Paula Doval.

Much gratitude goes to Miss Iler, who served as our advisor. We can truthfully say that our Motto "Sportsmanship Always" was held high throughout the year.

Orchesis

THIS year marks the beginning of a new tradition for Orchesis, the class in modern dance. On January 12 we presented a program for assembly in which Orchesis and the tap class joined to demonstrate various forms of the dance, as the waltz in ballet, tap, and modern dance; folk dances, a march, and an authentic Pavane. Also included were sections on Music and Modern Dance, and Dance and the Emotions. There were group and solo parts: "Comin' Round the Mountain," "Nellie Waltz," "First Love," and "Are You Sleeping?"

In February five of our members journeyed to Greensboro, N. C., to participate in the dance section of the Arts Forum at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina.

At this time we initiated fifteen girls as apprentices: Patsy Abernathy, Jane Blake, Sally Cecil, Barbara Clarke, Carolyn Clarke, Jean Coghill, Rhonda Derring, Margaret Duke, Lois Haynes, Nancy McLawhorne, Bonnie Moore, Pattie Parker, Florence Soghoian, Betty Lou Southall, and Sara Lou Wendenburg. A more inclusive program of dance was planned for our spring concert.

We again wish to thank Mrs. Emily K. Landrum for her guidance, encouragement, and inspiration. We truly thank our officers: Barbara Blackman, president; Shirley Roby, secretary-treasurer; Moneda Key, costume chairman; and Elizabeth Boswell, historian. We also thank Betty Bailey and Karen Spencer, our accompanists.

Alpha Sigma Alpha

FOUNDED: LONGWOOD COLLEGE 1901

BACK after a pleasant summer and our delightful week at the Beach, we opened our "Castle" doors for another year.

This year we are especially proud of Patsy Sanford, who was recognized by "Who's Who" and by Alpha Kappa Gamma. We are also proud of Ann Carter Wendenburg, who was treasurer of Student Government and president of the Junior Class, and Lou Kitts, president of Student Standards. Both were tapped by AKG.

Others who took part in school activities were Mary Ann Ward, treasurer of AA; Jean Carol Parker, treasurer of the Y; Alice Callaway, secretary and treasurer of the Granddaughters Club; Joan Williams, vice-president of the Home Economics Club; Patsy Abernathy, chairman of the Membership Committee of the Y; Mary Lou Barlow, business manager of May Day; Helen Marie Wood, secretary of the Home Economics Club; and Ann Snyder, sophomore house president.

In the fall we welcomed two new sisters: Alice Callaway and Ilia DesPortes. At our annual Founders Day Banquet, held in the Tea Room, we had as our guests the Farmville Alumnae.

Our spring rushing brought us much pleasure, for we gained as sisters: Iris Arnn, Euphan Carter, Mary Davis, Adele Donaldson, Eleanor Everett, Judy Harris, Pat Morgan, Kitty Nelson, Nancy Redd Quarrells, and Sara Lou Wendenburg.

This year was indeed a great year under the leadership of our capable officers. We thank sincerely our Miss Wall for her interest, guidance and inspiration.

Alpha Sigma Tau

FOUNDED: MICHIGAN STATE NORMAL SCHOOL 1899

FULL of news and memories of a delightful summer, we Alpha Sigma Taus returned to Longwood anticipating another pleasant year together.

November 4 we celebrated our Founder's Day with the traditional banquet. Helping with the festivities were our new "Tau Babies"—Nell Crocker, June Elder, Joanne Farless, Jacquelin Marshall, Phyllis Nurney, and Betsy Jean Robertson. In harmony with the Christmas spirit, we packed a box of toys for the Pine Mountain Settlement children.

In the spring we proudly welcomed as our new sisters: Brenda Assaid, Frances Brown, Betty Cory, Mary Kay Donnelly, Nancy Lea Harris, Virginia Johnston, Peggy Layman, Betty McAden, Bonnie Moore, Sally O'Malley, Shirley Osbourne, Rheta Russell, and Mary Jo Suttles.

We heartily congratulate Barbara Assaid, chosen as the Madonna of Longwood's Christmas Pageant and tapped by AKG along with Lura Beavers. Both were chosen to appear in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. Barbara became our president second semester after Dee Steger graduated.

Our year has truly been happy and successful under the capable leadership of Barbara Assaid, president; Betsy Jean Robertson, vice-president; Billie Miller, secretary; Martha Donaldson, treasurer; and Miss Bedford, our beloved advisor.

Delta Sigma Epsilon

FOUNDED: MIAMI UNIVERSITY 1914

WITH wonderful thoughts of our summer vacations still with us, the Deltas returned to Longwood in September eagerly looking forward to another successful year.

All of us were greatly thrilled by the adventures of Martha Wilson and Virginia Berry in San Francisco, California, where they attended the 1953 conclave of Delta Sigma Epsilon.

Fall rushing gave us four charming pledges: Gaynelle Edwards, Eleanor Long, Shirley Mallory, and Karen Spencer.

We are quite pleased with the many offices held by Delta Sigmas on campus this year. Ann Mallory served as president of Panhellenic Council. Virginia Berry and Nellie Lucy were business manager and secretary of the Cotillion Club, respectively. Lucy Mann was president of Kappa Delta Pi, and Shirley Roby was secretary-treasurer of Orchesis.

We wish to express our gratitude to our officers for their leadership during the year. We are also grateful to Miss Winnie Hiner, our sponsor, for her guidance and encouragement she has faithfully given us throughout the year.

To the seniors who are leaving us, we bid a fond adieu, and hope that each of you will find success and happiness in the years that are to come.

Kappa Delta

FOUNDED: LONGWOOD COLLEGE 1897

SEPTEMBER began another successful year for the Kappa Deltas at Longwood. We were sorry that those who did not return this fall missed the excitement of hearing about the biannual convention held in Biloxi, Mississippi, during the summer.

Rushing immediately occupied our minds, and we happily greeted Ann Coleman and Joyce Gillchrest, our fall pledges.

Many Kappa Deltas took an active part in school activities. Our own Mary Denny Wilson served as president of Government this year, and much to our delight, received a diamond in the fall. Mary Denny and Pat Altwegg were elected to Who's Who, and Pat also was chairman of AKG Circus in October. Peggy, Fanny, and Pat were on the Virginian Staff, and Betty served as secretary of the Junior Class.

Combining work with our play, we were both honored and pleased to learn that we had the highest sorority average in scholarship.

Once again it is spring, and we say goodbye to our graduating sisters. For the help of our loyal alumnae we are indeed grateful. We were guided through a successful year by the inspiration and understanding of our advisor, Miss Florence Stubbs, and by our council: Mary Elva Robinson, president, Peggy Worthington, vice-president, Betty Davis, secretary, and Mary Denny Wilson, treasurer.

Pi Kappa Sigma

FOUNDED: MICHIGAN STATE NORMAL SCHOOL 1894

SEPTEMBER found the Pi Kaps back at school with many plans of redecorating our room, we were pleased to welcome Anne Foster in our busy group. Just before Christmas we had a rummage sale to raise money for our room fund. All had fun collecting and selling the clothes.

Senior Dance found our room colorfully decorated. Entertaining in our "new" room thrilled us. For our Christmas party each girl brought a useful gift for the chapter room.

Mrs. Robert Terrill, second vice-president and our inspector, visited our sorority. The dinner at Longwood Estate, given in her honor, was an enjoyable treat.

Pi Kaps in the news! "Boop," president of AKG, was selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Nell Copley, president of the Senior Class, was tapped by AKG. Nancy T. Masters was chosen Circus representative from the Junior class. We were proud of our Pi Kap beauties on May Court: Ann Foster, reigned as queen, and Sylvia Reames, Betty Islin, Nancy T. Masters, Joan DeAlba, and Jane Lohr graced her court.

We wish to express our gratitude to Miss Iler, our beloved sponsor whose guidance has been so helpful throughout the year; and our officers: Peggy Hood, president; Moneda Key, vice-president; Sylvia Reames, secretary; and Barbara Blackman, treasurer.

Sigma Sigma Sigma

FOUNDED: LONGWOOD COLLEGE 1898

AMID the laughter and greetings of the Sigmas carrying bundles that had been stored in the chapter room during the summer, we eagerly greeted our new "sis" from Madison, Ann Turley. We were again delighted when she and Jean Coghill were "pinned." During fall rushing we welcomed Jemima Cobb into our group.

How proud we were of our outstanding sisters! Mary Ann King, an AKG member, edited The Virginian and made "Who's Who." Mary Ann Evans, another AKG member, served as business manager of the Rotunda. June Johns was treasurer for her class, and Fifi Carter was president of Pi Delta Epsilon. Margaret Duke not only served as president of the Sophomore Class, but also was elected their Circus representative, and Jane Blake made a wonderful animal trainer.

"Hankins" returned in December to lead the Senior Dance figure; in the spring, Nancy played a superb Juliet in the production "Romeo and Juliet." June Manlove will never be forgotten as Fire Chief!

We owe much to Miss Trent, who guided us, and to our officers: June Johns, president; Betty Benton, vice-president; Beth Kent, recording secretary; Mary Hundley, corresponding secretary; and June Manlove, treasurer.

Theta Sigma Epsilon

FOUNDED: KANSAS STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE 1921

WHEN September came, Thetas all over Virginia turned their thoughts to Longwood and another pleasant year together. We sadly missed all those who left us in June, but resolved to make this year the best ever!

A memorable event of the year was our visit by our national president, Mrs. June Petrillo. We also delighted in welcoming back our old sisters to our spring banquet and weekend at Longwood House.

Circus found the Thetas doing much to make it a success. We were proud of Mary Jean, who directed the senior skit and reigned as Queen of Circus. Mary Ann Wright served as co-chairman of the sophomore skit and did a fine job to help the sophs win second place.

February saddened us, for we lost three of our dear sisters, who completed their studies at Longwood: Effie Sydner, Maxine Dize, and Margie Fore Norris.

We were proud of our officers for the year: Mary Jean Carlyle, president; Nan Picinick, vice-president; Ellen Brent Dize, recording secretary; Lillian Guthrie, corresponding secretary; Anna Mae Sanders, treasurer; Paula Dovel, Pan Hellenic representative.

To Mrs. Marvin Schlegel, our advisor, we extend our warmest and deepest thanks for her never-failing advice and encouragement. And at the end of a wonderful year, we bid farewell to our beloved senior sisters.

Zeta Tau Alpha

FOUNDED: LONGWOOD COLLEGE 1898

OPENING days in the fall still found us reminiscing over our Virginia Beach party and other summer activities, but soon our thoughts turned to plans for the year.

One of the first projects undertaken by our chapter was to give a series of informal desserts in honor of other chapters on campus. We also gave money toward a Cerebral Palsy Manual which we presented to the library.

As the year progressed, the Zetas showed their usual enthusiasm in activities on campus. Donnie Devine served on the Virginian and Dot Douglas, Shirley Ward, and Phoebe Warner were active on the Rotunda staff. Shirley and Mason Moore received recognition in AKG. Barbara Mays led her class as co-chairman of Sophomore Production, and Dot Douglas was circus co-chairman for the juniors. Joyce Quick served as vice-president of the Junior Class and Ann Brooking was elected to the May Day Committee.

We wish to thank our officers: Mason, president; Joyce, vice-president; Phoebe, secretary; and Donnie, treasurer. We also thank our alumnae for their guidance throughout the year.

TO the Class of 1954, the time has been all to short; to the Class of 1957, the years till graduation seem a very long way off. Yet we will all look back on 1953-54 as a good year and hope that 1954-55 may be as successful. And so the 1954 Virginian is also completed after a full and successful year. We hope that the 1955 Virginian may fare as well. To Donetta Devine and Peggy Worthington, next year's editor and business manager, we wish the greatest success and a staff equal to our fine one this year.

We would like to express our thanks and appreciation to the following, without whose help the 1954 Virginian could never have been:

MR. T. A. McCORKLE for being the wonderful advisor that he is. Without Mr. Mac's guidance, inspiration, and patience, we could have never achieved what we have.

LYNCHBURG ENGRAVING COMPANY for their help in layout and art work, and for our engravings.

J. P. BELL COMPANY, INC., for printing our book.

ANDRE STUDIO for its excellent group and individual photographs.

MISS NANCY FOSTER for her proof reading and criticism as our literary advisor.

MISS VIRGINIA BEDFORD for her suggestions and aid as our art advisor.

THE STUDENT BODY, FACULTY, AND ADMINISTRATION for their interest, support, and cooperation.

THE STAFF for their untiring efforts, patience, and cooperation in making the 1954 Virginian.

As you close this book, we hope that you have the same pleasant memories of a happy year at Longwood, that we have had while working on it. We have enjoyed putting this book out; we hope you will always enjoy it.

PATRICIA PALMER ALTWEGG, Business Manager
